

Top 10 Reasons to Run for ONS Office

10. Serve a professional organization that is committed to high-quality cancer care.
9. See and talk to colleagues several times throughout the year.
8. Impact critical issues facing the oncology community.
7. Develop your leadership skills.
6. Bring local and regional concerns to a national level.
5. Influence "new" leaders to come forward.
4. Experience the joys of travel while collecting frequent flyer miles.
3. Improve your skills with completing detailed applications.
2. Recognize that YOU can make a difference.
1. Make a difference for patients with cancer and their families everywhere.