

Your strength, courage, and resilience in the face of the unimaginable is a comfort and inspiration for your patients. From diagnosis to treatment and beyond, you are committed to your patient's cancer journey.

That's why we celebrate you, the oncology nurse, this May and every month after.

125 Enterprise Drive • Pittsburgh, PA 15275-1214
866-257-4ONS (toll-free phone)
www.ons.org • www.onfgivesback.org

CELEBRATE ONCOLOGY NURSING MONTH • MAY 2021

Available to all prelicensure students enrolled full-time in a nursing program.

- Plan a virtual educational program in your community relating to cancer screening and care.
- Reach out to local students about a career in oncology nursing. Remember, full-time students receive a free membership with ONS*!
- Highlight a community-service project in which your chapter or organization was involved.
- Write about a cancer-related topic that is receiving media attention or that is of interest to your community.

Take Steps to Improve Your Community

- Buy flowers for the oncology nursing staff or colleagues.
 - Hold an oncology nurse appreciation day at your hospital or clinic and invite all employees to help honor the difference these dedicated professionals make every day.
 - Develop an Oncology Nursing Month display to honor the cancer nurses in your workplace, and make sure to hang an Oncology Nursing Month banner!
 - Nominate an oncology nurse for an ONS award.
- All oncology nurses are amazing! Show your pride for your profession and commend one another's daily efforts. The feeling of appreciation and morale will extend far beyond that moment. Need some ideas for how to celebrate the great nurses in your life?

Step Forward and Recognize Your Colleagues

- Relax with a hot bath and some lavender candles to relieve stress.
- Start a journal that reflects your daily accomplishments.
- Disconnect from your busy world and recharge by spending time outdoors.

yourself and here are some examples how:

You provide steadfast and selfless care to your patients so take a moment to reflect and focus back on yourself. Setting aside as little as 15-30 minutes a day of personal time can help you feel happier, healthier, and more focused. We want you to spend some time on

Take a Step Back and Reflect

Step Into the Spotlight

We want to hear how you're celebrating Oncology Nursing Month! Follow us on Twitter and Instagram at @OncologyNursing and tag us in your celebration by using the hashtag, #OncologyNursingMonth. We will feature your photos throughout the month.

Celebrate oncology nursing by donating to the Oncology Nursing Foundation. Your donation can help in providing academic scholarships, research funding, and leadership training for oncology nurses now—and for generations to come. To see how your contribution makes a difference and to donate, visit onfgivesback.org.

Support the Future of Oncology Nursing

Do you know a nurse who has made a real difference in oncology nursing in your local area? Share their impact by nominating them for an ONS award. Oncology nursing awards are available for many specialties and career stages. Visit the ONS website for more information.

Recognize an Exceptional Nurse With an ONS Award

Visit the ONS website to view the catalog and order products. Bulk discounts are available on most products.

Check out shirts, tumblers, totes, and more available with this year's theme—Inspiring Innovation. Inspiring Care.

Show Your Colleagues Your Appreciation With Oncology Nursing Month Products

CELEBRATE ONCOLOGY NURSING MONTH • MAY 2021

