

COMPREHENSIVE ORIENTATION FOR NURSES NEW TO ONCOLOGY

The Oncology Nurse Orientation Program, available through ONS On-Demand™, provides institutions with a comprehensive program for new oncology nurses that explores the following topics:

- The role of the oncology nurse in medical, surgical, and radiation oncology
- Oncology nursing scope of practice
- Legal and ethical issues related to oncology nursing practice
- Cancer biology
- Drug therapy covering all categories of chemotherapy and immunotherapy
- Infection prevention and care immunocompromised patients
- Vascular access device standards of care and management of complications
- Basics of safe handling
- Oncologic emergencies
- Review of breast, colorectal and lung cancers, as well as hematologic malignancies

Didactic interactive content in 27 modules offering 29.75 NCPD contact hours

Available for institutional purchase via ONS On-Demand™

Supports new oncology nurses working toward certification based on the ONS Oncology Nurse Generalist Competencies

Evidence-based content incorporating ONS standards and guidelines

ONS-recommended week-by-week pace as well as learner- and preceptor-driven learning cadence

Flexibility to access and complete content across the course (not locked into a learning path)

Preceptor-led activities and clinical scenarios

Looking to offer your nurses the opportunity to earn a Chemotherapy Provider Card? It's simple! Pair this course with the Fundamentals of Chemotherapy Immunotherapy Administration course.

To learn more, contact institutions@ons.org.

