Putting Evidence Into Practice (PEP): What’s New in the Prevention of Bleeding

Changes since prior topic update
Last topic update: April 3, 2017

The team reviewed two new interventions, thrombopoetin and antifibrinolytics. Both were categorized as Effectiveness Not Established due to insufficient evidence to draw conclusions about efficacy from systematic reviews.